Those who bought chances on getting a $800 piano at the bazaar of the Omaha guards can have their money refunded by applying to the committee. Only $200 worth of tickets were sold.

One hundred and ninety-five saloonkeepers have paid their 1888 licenses. There are, therefore, about seventy-eight liquor dealers who will be shut out of the New Year's day raffle-off.

The Aurora society of the South Tenth street M. E. church will give an oyster supper at the residence of A. J. Harmon, 514 Pierce street, Thursday evening, December 18. Everyone invited.

Ollie Vandervoort, the seven-year-old daughter of Paul Vandervoort, died Monday of cerebro-spinal meningitis. The funeral took place from 1110 South Thirty-second street at 2 p. m. yesterday.

A runaway team caused considerable excitement near the corner of Eleventh and Farnam, where they were stopped, but the wagon was considerably damaged. The outfit belonged to Paxton & Gallagher.

A buggy owned and driven by a man named Gibson, was wrecked yesterday afternoon on Harney and Thirteenth streets. The horse caught his fore legs in the slot of the cable trucks and stumbled, with the above result.

There is a change in the programme of the winter garden. The third concert of the Musical Union orchestra and the regular German theatrical performance next Sunday are postponed until Tuesday, December 23. On Saturday, December 22, and Sunday, December 23, the famous prestidigitator, Prof. Theo. Bardo, supported by Miss La Motte, will appear.

COPELAND'S SHOES.

By Whom Will They be Worn in the School Board.

Now that Rev. Copeland's resignation as a member of the board of education has been handed in, numerous persons are being mentioned as his probable successor. The board itself chooses a person to fill the vacancy until the school election next June. The sixth ward is very clamorous for representation on the board, and claims that as that ward comprises about one-fifth of the territory of Omaha they should have a member. The fourth ward they say has three or four and the sixth regards this as a monopoly. Thomas J. Magrane and Frank Spore, both of the sixth are rival candidates for the position, and the friends of each are vigorously pressing their claims.

Fred W. Gray has been asked to allow his name to be used for re-election, but it is said he has refused to do so. The friends of Henry Livesey say that they believe he would run again if asked. Charles Brunner is said to be an aspirant for the position, and is pressing a vigorous canvass of the board. A. P. Tukey's name has been mentioned for some time as a candidate. The names of Thomas Kilpatrick and Judge McCulloch are also occasionally mentioned. Frank Reisman is said to be an aspirant for the position also. At the next meeting of the board a successor will probably be elected.

Offensive breath vanishes with the use of Dr. Sago's Arrh Remedy.

The Guards Elect Officers.

The annual election of officers, civil and military, by the Omaha Guards is the order of business held on Monday night at the armory on Capitol avenue. Mr. Jesse Lowe presided and the following officers were elected: President, Jesse Lowe; vice president, Robinson; clerk, Nye; treasurer, Acheson. The Messrs. Tyrrell, Harvey, Carey, Berlin and Mulford were directors. The civil officers are ex-officio directors. Captain A. H. Schaff; first lieutenant, W. A. Webster; second lieutenant, Harry Mulford; quartermaster, S. B. Reed.

The Guards adopted a style of uniform to be worn by the company on its trip to Washington for inauguration day. The coat will be dark blue, the trousers of light blue with white stripes, a black beaver shako and a dark blue greatcoat. The trimmings, belts, and the like will be left to the committee in charge of affairs.

Sick headache is readily cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which tones and regulates the digestion, and creates an appetite.

A Consignment of Postage Stamps.

Postmaster Gallagher received a new consignment of postage stamps yesterday from the postmaster general's office. There was $36,550 worth of stamps and $5,000 worth of postal cards. With what was already in stock at the office, the value of postage stamps is estimated at over $80,000. The above quantity is a three months' supply and has increased some 30 per cent over the amount on hand during a similar period last year. There was but little special delivery stamps required, which brought forth the remark from the postmaster that this system is not at all well patronized in Omaha. The only material change in the stamps received is that in the 4 cent stamp. The new ones are of a pale pink color, a great improvement on the dull green hitherto used. The head of Jackson still appears on them.

Will you suffer with dyspepsia and liver complaint? Suffer no more. It is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by Goodman Drug Co.

Prominent Celebrities.

The following official representations of the Chinese empire arrived in Omaha yesterday morning: Lin Lang Yuan, secretary of the Chinese legation, Lima, Peru; Chun Sen Yin, Chinese consul-general, Havana, Cuba; Lung Ting Chang, Chinese consul-general, San Francisco; Yoo King Han, attaché of consulate, San Francisco; and four servants. Upon their arrival they were taken to the Millard hotel and directed, after which they were given an opportunity to view the sights of the city under the direction of Chief Clerk Scott of the general passenger and ticket department of the Union Pacific over which they will depart yesterday evening for the Pacific coast.

That hacking cough can be so quickly cured by Shiloh's Cure. We guarantee it. For sale by Goodman Drug Co.

Those Long-Lost Sparklers.

Captain Green, of the police force, and Joseph Garneau, returned yesterday morning from the Port Madison, Pennsylvania, whither they went last Sunday to see one of the Grosses who is confined in that prison for receiving the stolen diamonds from the robbers who pillaged the Garneau residence of his jewels last June. All three of the persons connected with that noted robbery are now in states prison, but not a single one of the $3,500 worth has been recovered. The Grosses still refuse to divulge the hiding place of the jewels, but Captain Green and Mr. Garneau are determined to leave no stone unturned in their hunt for the diamonds.

Pozzoni's Complexion Powder produces a soft and beautiful skin; it combines every element of beauty and purity.

No New Insurance Compact.

The meetings of insurance agents, spoken of in this paper a few days ago, have closed without making a new local compact. The old agreement was not considered binding because it could not enforce its terms. One of the features of the new company was the posting of $100 by every agent as a forfeit for non-compliance with the compact, but the majority of the agents refused to put up the money required.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25c a bottle.

Granted by the Legislature.

John D. Howe, attorney for the Motor company, told a Bazar reporter yesterday afternoon that he would have good reasons to show Judge Doane why the suit brought against his company by the mayor of Omaha should be dismissed. The legislature of Nebraska, who were "bigger men" than the city of Omaha, said Mr. Howe, granted the Motor company certain rights, and he would show that in the erection of these much disputed poles the company he represented had violated none of the conditions imposed upon them, and next Monday is set for the hearing in the district court.

Do not throw away your hard-earned cash for every new cough syrup, when that standard remedy for coughs, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, is 25 cents a bottle. "Hurrah!" said a little girl, "I'm not to be kept in because of that horrid neuralgia. My mamma bought a bottle of Salvation Oil."

Notes About the City.

Citizens are paying the grading assessment and the bridge tolls to be over. John C. Carroll was the first to pay.

The new furniture for the postoffice has arrived and will be put in place at once. The office will be moved into the McGinnis block, N. 10th, Saturday, the 29th.

The meeting of the Shakespeare club, which was to have been at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayward last night, has been postponed till Saturday evening next.

Engineer R. H. Lawrence was taken seriously ill Sunday night at the Pacific hotel and is yet in a precarious condition.

The funeral of the late Max Dickman, who died at the residence of his daughter and son-in-law Monday afternoon, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The interment was in Laurel Hill cemetery.

The new rooms for the fire department on Twenty-sixth street, known as The Club, will be ready for use to-day.

Mrs. Frank J. Shelly, who has been visiting her parents for a fortnight at Atkinson, returned home yesterday and was accompanied by Mrs. Winslow Humpral and child of Ravenna.

First class fiction, fine engravings, the latest fashion news, useful information on household matters, etc., make up the January number of Peterson's Magazine. It well merits the title of "the ladies' favorite," for it caters admirably to their needs.

Religious Notes.

The foundation for the Monmouth Park Methodist Episcopal church was commenced on Saturday last. The building will be pushed to completion, and, with the ground, will cost $150. It is being donated by the Monmouth association. The pastor will be Rev. Mr. Slaughter.

Rev. E. A. Fogelstrom says that the first wing of the new Evangelical and Deaconess institute is almost ready for roofing, and hopes to have it covered in before the close of the year.

The people of the Swedish Evangelical Lutheran church on Eighteenth and Cass streets, the pastorate of which has just been resigned by Mr. Fogelstrom, have called Rev. Prof. Olsen, of Augustana college near Rock Island. He has the reputation of being the most pious and able Swedish minister in the country.

Grateful.

From the Council Bluffs Daily Globe, January 2, 1888: "M. A. McPike, editor of the Cambria (Ebensburg, Pa.) Freeman, has been the personal friend of the editor of the Globe for more than twenty years, and is known, wherever he is known, as one of the best men living. He is also an intimate friend of Mr. Clark, of the Nonpareil. He has been unfortunate in the fact that his family was ravaged with diphtheria, and greatly distressed. Mr. Clark, having heard of his calamity, sent him some of Dr. J. C. Jefferis' Diphtheria Cure. It was used at once, and the lives of the rest of his children saved. Letters from Mr. McPike are unbounded in their expressions of gratitude for finding some means of averting the loss of his whole group of little and tender ones. Five of Mr. McPike's children out of eight died from diphtheria before he had an opportunity of using Dr. J. C. Jefferis' remedy. Price of remedy, 25 cents. Address Dr. Thos. Jefferis, box 657, Omaha, Neb."

A Great Head He P. T.

The Bee is in receipt of what purports to be an autograph letter from Pines T. Barum, the great Bridgeport showman. He guilelessly asks for a correction of the misstatement which he saw in The Bee running to the effect that he had abandoned the show business. Then he rings in a few virulent and vicious, and writes the letter with his own hand, with his own pen and upon his own paper. When Mr. Barum reads this he may regret at the rate of $1.00 a line for it.

To Prevent Croup.

True croup never comes without a warning; a day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse, and that symptom is soon followed by a peculiar, rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as this hoarseness or rough cough appears, all danger and anxiety may be avoided; it has never failed, even in the most severe cases. There is no danger in giving the Remedy for it contains no injurious substance. Sold by all druggists.

Dangerously Ill.

Miss Bessie O'Brien, daughter of the late General George M. O'Brien, and until recently in charge of the library of the Bar association, is lying dangerously ill at her home on South Seventeenth street. A few nights ago her life was despaired of, but yesterday a slight change toward improvement in her condition was gratefully noted by many friends.

Grand Jury Inquiry.

It was reported yesterday that the grand jury was about to return two indictments for alleged election frauds.

M. H. Ish, of the Seventh ward, was before the jury all morning, and was examined, it was thought, upon the pauper vote. It has been hinted that Walter Wallace, of the same ward, if subpoenaed, might tell of some irregularities.

One word: one step may make or mar one's whole future. Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic is the proper move when you have dyspepsia, indigestion, piles, pimples, acne, malaria, low spirits, headache or any stomach or liver troubles. 50 cents. Goodman Drug Co.

Sporting Notes.

Frank Parmelee of this city and Kit Baker of North Platte will shoot for $500 a side December 31, at 100 lbs rocks—the weather permitting.

Frank Selee has been re-engaged by the Omaha management to look after the ball team for 1889.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

We are offering special inducements to parents who are desirous of securing practical and appropriate holiday gifts for their boys; what better or more sensible present can you give them than a nice Suit or Overcoat? We are showing handsome styles for big and small boys, and our qualities and prices can not be matched.

$2.50 buys a very nice all wool Suit or a good Overcoat with cape for small boys.

$3.50 buys an excellent Suit or Overcoat for small boys.

$5.50 buys a very good all wool Suit or splendid Chinchilla Overcoat for large boys up to 18 years old.

We call special attention to a few small lots of very choice styles of Overcoats for little boys from 4 to 10, which we offer at a marvelous low price. We are anxious to close them out; they are extremely fine goods and the brief season left for the disposal of such qualities induced us to make a big cut on them; they are made of very fine Kerseys, Chinchilla and Cheviots—this seasons novelties, of elegant designs and richly trimmed, some with fur, some with plush—in short they are such garments as can only be found in first-class houses. We have marked them $6.00, $7.25, $7.90 and $8.50, and we guarantee that these prices are not one half of what such goods usually bring. This is an extraordinary opportunity to procure a fine garment at such a figure and every boy will appreciate such a gift.

In our Hat Department can be found an immense line of Boy's Hats and Caps in Plush, Felt and Cloth. We positively sell these goods at just one-half what regular Hat dealers ask for them, and you would be surprised to see our prices. Good little Turbans of Plush, Chinchilla and Astrachan at 25c; splendid Knit and Jersey Caps at 30c, and very fine Cloth and Jersey Caps at 40c, 50c and 75c.

In our Glove Department we have a large assortment of Boy's Gloves and Mittens, suitable for presents. As a Christmas offering we will present this week each boy with every purchase—no matter how small, a nice paint box. We have opened an elegant line of Mufflers, Silk Handkerchiefs and Scarfs, especially for holiday trade and offer them at prices lower than asked in any other house for like qualities. Good Cashmere Mufflers at 15c, 35c and 50c; elegant Silk Mufflers of beautiful designs and elegantly embroidered at 75c, $1.00 and $1.50.

Next Thursday we shall begin to distribute our elegant holiday souvenirs and we will also forward one with all out of town orders.
